I am a man of con-stant sor-row,
For six long years I've been in trou-ble
It's fare thee well my old true lo-ver.
You can bury me in some deep val-ley,
May_ be your friends think I'm just a stran-ger

I've seen trou-ble all my day.
No pleasures here_ on earth I found.
I nev-er expect_ to see you again.
For many years_ where I may lay.
My own face_ you'll see no more.

I bid fare- well to old Ken- tuck- y,
 For in this world I'm bound to ride that north- ern rail- ble,
 Then you may learn that to love an- oth- er,
 But there is one promise that is an- oth- er, ven
